- ☒ Grand Jury is group of at least 16 people selected from within NDWV
- ☒ They hear evidence presented to them by the Government
- ☒ They can subpoena witnesses on their own
- ☒ After hearing the evidence, they secretly deliberate and decide two things:
  - ☒ Is there probable cause to believe a crime has been committed
  - ☒ Is there probable cause to believe that you committed the crime
- ☒ If 12 or more of the 16 or more grand jurors who heard the evidence and deliberated decide there is such probable cause, then they return an indictment
- ☒ The indictment becomes the statement of a formal charge against you
- ☒ If 12 or more can't agree there is probable cause, no indictment is returned
- ☐ The prosecution nor anyone but the grand jurors is present in the room during these deliberations and votes
- ☒ You cannot be forced to give up your Constitutional right to proceed by grand jury indictment
- ☒ You may voluntarily give up that right if you want to and agree to proceed by information
- ☒ If you do that, there will be no grand jury
- ☒ There will be no screening of the evidence by a grand jury to determine if there is probable cause
- ☒ It is your way of saying you consent to the United States Attorney directly filing the criminal charge against you without presenting it to a grand jury for probable cause screening
- ☒ If an indictment was previously returned against you, but now you are proceeding under an information instead of the indictment
  - ☒ The information will replace the indictment
  - ☒ By pleading guilty to the charge in the information you give up the right to raise or challenge any defect that may have existed in the grand jury process

☒ If you consent to proceed by the information, your consent must be voluntarily given
☒ Your consent cannot be the result of coercion, pressure, force, undue influence, threat or promise of reward

☒ Do you understand your rights with regard to:

- ☒ Proceeding by indictment return by a Grand Jury
- ☒ Waiver of your Constitutional right to the Grand Jury process

☒ Have you read it

☒ Have you reviewed the charge or charges in it with your lawyer

☒ Do you understand those charges

☒ Do you need more time to discuss those charges with your lawyer

☒ Do you want to give up your Constitutional right to proceed by the Grand Jury Indictment process

☒ Do you want to proceed by the Information that has been filed against you by the United States Attorney

- ☒ Did your lawyer promise you probation
- ☒ Did your lawyer promise you any special downward departures under the guidelines
- ☒ Do you understand your lawyer cannot promise you what your actual sentence is going to be
- ☒ Do you understand he/she can't promise you any sentence because

- ☒ Did you talk with any family or close personal friends about your decision to sign a plea agreement
- ☒ Has anyone, your attorney, the AUSA, the investigator made any promises to you in order to get you to plead guilty that are different from the agreement
- ☒ Was it your idea or your lawyer's idea for you to sign this plea agreement My Idea
- ☐ Do you understand the Court had nothing to do with negotiating or preparing the

- ☒ language in your plea agreement <sup>Y</sup>
That means, the District Judge will withhold his/her decision whether to accept the plea agreement or any provision in it until
- ☒ A pre-sentence report has been prepared <sup>Y</sup>
  - ☒ You and the government have had a chance to file objections to the report <sup>Y</sup>
  - ☒ You and the government have had a chance to speak at your sentencing hearing <sup>Y</sup>
  - ☒ Do you understand that <sup>Y</sup>
  - ☒ Did you and your lawyer talk about that <sup>Y</sup>
- ☒ Along that line, your agreement has non-binding recommendations and non-binding stipulations in paragraphs ____ and ____
- ☒ With respect to the non-binding sentencing recommendations, do you understand the District Judge who will sentence you can
    - ☒ Reject all or any part of those recommendations and <sup>Y</sup>
    - ☒ Impose a sentence that is more severe - more time than it would have been had he/she gone along with each of the recommendations <sup>Y</sup>
  - ☒ If that would happen, do you understand, that you will not then have a right to withdraw your plea of guilty made today <sup>Y</sup>
  - ☒ With respect to the non-binding stipulation, do you understand that the District Judge who will sentence you can
    - ☒ Reject the stipulation or any part of the stipulation you and the government have agreed to in paragraph ____
    - ☒ Make his/her own findings of fact that may be different from what you and the Government agreed to
      - ☒ Using the pre-sentence report
      - ☒ Using witnesses who may give testimony and evidence at your sentencing hearing
      - ☒ Without a jury
      - ☒ And by the preponderance of evidence standard as opposed to the beyond a reasonable doubt standard
      - ☒ Use her own findings in your sentencing
      - ☒ Impose a sentence that is more severe - more time than it would have been had he/she gone along with the stipulation
    - ☒ If that would happen and it result in an actual sentence which is more severe, do you understand you will not have a right to change your mind and withdraw your guilty plea
  - ☒ Did you and your lawyer talk about the non-binding recommendations and non-binding stipulations like I just did
  - ☒ Do you need any additional time to privately discuss the plea agreement with your attorney or for him to privately further explain anything I said
- ☐ There are certain terms in your agreement that are considered as binding terms under FRCrP 11(E)(1)(c): _____
- ☐ Did your lawyer explain to you what binding meant
  - ☐ Simply stated, it means: You and the Government want the District Judge to be bound by what you have agreed to in those specific provisions

- ☐ Do you understand that just because you and the Government agree to those terms does not automatically make those terms binding on the District Judge
- ☐ In fact, do you understand the District Judge may want to reserve his/her decision on whether to be bound by - to go along with those terms until he/she has reviewed the pre-sentence report, the objections to that report and heard you and the Government at sentencing
- ☐ Do you understand that the District Judge has the right not to be bound by - not to follow those terms we just reviewed
- ☐ If the District Judge decides not to be bound to the so-called "binding" terms of your plea agreement, do you understand the Judge will tell you he/she won't be bound and give you the opportunity then to withdraw your guilty plea
- ☐ If you don't withdraw your guilty plea, do you further understand the District Judge can then sentence you without being bound by the so-called "binding" terms of your agreement
- ☐ Did you and your lawyer talk about the binding terms of your agreement like I just did
- ☐ Do you need any additional time to privately discuss the plea agreement with your attorney or for him to privately further explain anything I said

  - ☒ Six, you will be subject to a sentence which may include incarceration for 4 years y
  - ☒ Seven, if the District Judge finds you are able to pay a fine, you may be subject to a fine up to 250,000 y
  - ☒ Eight, you could be both fined and imprisoned y
  - ☐ Nine, you will be subject to a term of supervised release of 1 years, which is in addition to any term of imprisonment

- ☒ Ten, you will be subject to a special assessment of 100 [100 on each charge] whether you have the money to pay it or not y
- ☒ Did you and your lawyer talk about how the District Judge will use your prior criminal history, if you have any, in the sentencing process y
- ☒ From that discussion, do you understand that your prior criminal history could increase the amount of time you get under a guideline calculated sentence and under the actual sentence the District Judge imposes y
- ☒ From that discussion, do you understand that if you have any of the following types of convictions y
- ☒ prior firearms offense convictions
  - ☒ prior violent felony offense convictions

- ☒ Do you also understand he/she will make those determinations without a jury using a preponderance of evidence standard y

- ☒ Do you understand that while you are in prison you may be able to earn good time credit against your sentence y

- ☐ However, good time is not controlled by the Court y
- ☐ It is controlled by the warden and staff in the prison where you will be serving your time - your sentence y
- ☐ Do you understand that y

☒ Did you and your lawyer review how the Advisory Uniform Sentencing Guideline Chart works [exhibit]

☒ Did he show you how the Criminal History columns across the top of the chart worked y

☒ Did he show you how the Offense Levels going down the left side of the chart worked y

☒ Did he show you how going over from an offense level it intersects with criminal history categories showing a range of months of possible imprisonment under the guidelines

☒ Do you completely understand that you cannot take what your lawyer showed you as his/her promise or guarantee to you that at sentencing the District Judge will see it the same way as he/she did and give that guideline range sentence as your actual sentence y

☒ If the District Judge sees it differently and gives you an actual sentence which is more than you may have anticipated or expected, do you understand you will not be able to say then or later

☒ Judge, if I'd known you were going to give me that much time y

☒ I would have never pled guilty y

☒ I want to change my mind and withdraw my guilty plea y

☒ You will not have the right then to withdraw you plea of guilty y
